

but it is important
not to give in

oh no
your friend is becoming attractive

HOW to LOVE

itzel asks:

What if out of nowhere
I notice that my friend is beginning to seem super attractive & I start to like him?

more attractive by the second!!

They may morph into someone overwhelmingly handsome and their beautiful features will get increasingly exaggerated until they are hideous.

because there is a fine line between beauty & ugliness

To counteract the curse, cover their head with a bag

So you focus on personality, not their looks.
